

Modelling The Future

B-HERT Tertiary Sector Round Table

Storey Hall, RMIT, Swanston Street, Melbourne
16 November 2009

proudly sponsored by

Venue:
Storey Hall, RMIT Building 16

- 9.45am – 10.00am Registration
- 10.00am – 10.15am MC – David Hind, B-HERT Chair
Welcome – Prof. Margaret Gardner AO, Vice Chancellor, RMIT
- 10.15am – 10.45am Keynote Address – John Dawkins AO, Chair AQF Council
Cross-sectoral linkages and pathways
- 10.45am – 12.15pm The merits of diversity of the Australian VET sector
- Marion van Rooden, A/Deputy Secretary, Skills Victoria, DIIRD
Demand driven & Dual Sector models
 - Rosemary Campbell, Director of TAFE NSW, Riverina Institute
From Big to Bespoke; a Managed Market Model
 - Neil Fernandes, Managing Director Central TAFE, WA
Supporting delivery using a Shared Services Model
 - Belinda McLennan, CEO Tasmanian Polytechnic
Polytechnic model
 - Andrew Smith, Executive Director ACPET
Private Training sector
- 12.15pm – 12.45pm Discussion – Facilitated by David Hind
What works best for the VET sector as a whole?
- 12.45pm – 1.15pm Lunch
- 1.15pm – 2.00pm Keynote Address – Robin Shreeve, CEO Skills Australia
The landscape for the tertiary education sector; implications for the VET sector
- 2.00pm – 2.45pm Keynote Address – Andrew Rimington, Senior Manager Employment Education and Training, VECCI
Industries' leadership roles in shaping the new tertiary education environment
- 2.45pm – 3.15pm Keynote Address – Patrick Coleman, Director, Policy, Business Council of Australia
Business Innovation in the Tertiary Education Environment
- 3.15pm – 3.45pm Discussion – Facilitated by David Hind
- 3.45pm – 4.00pm Close – Allan Ballagh, Director TAFE RMIT